INTERNATIONAL TRANSLATION DAY

The world consists of diverse cultures with numerous languages which vary from country to country. When it comes to a country like India, language varies from state to state and also within states. So, to acknowledge this day, September 30th is observed as World Translation Day. Its main objective is to increase awareness of the translation industry and languages that play an important role in our society. This day honours the language specialists for their efforts in the field of translation. This day is celebrated on the feast of St.Jerome, the Bible translator who is considered the patron saint of linguists. The United Nations (UN) says that this day recognizes the contribution of language specialists who helped in fostering international understanding, improving communication and cooperation among nations for their contribution to worldwide peace and security.
